

---

Code of Ethics to Check Malpractices and Plagiarism in Research:

---

Maharaja Jivajirao Shinde Mahavidyalaya Shrigonda is affiliated to SPPU, Pune. The code of ethics formulated by SPPU, Pune are mandatory to this college also and our college follows the same code of ethics. In order to maintain the morality and high standards of integrity in academic research and administration the college framed out a set of guidelines.

Code of ethics regarding research:

- Conduct all activities of research in consonance with the accepted standards at national and international levels.
- Make sure the accuracy of collected data, result obtained, experimental conclusions used in research work.
- On demand, provide necessary assistance to research scholars whenever required.
- Take care and maintain laboratory equipment's for extension of their life long service.
- Follow the rules of state and national biodiversity board for conservation of study material from life sciences.
- Avoid malpractices in resources and plagiarism in research results.
- Follow rules and regulation about biosafety and bioethics.
- Strictly follow the rules of state pollution board to minimize release of hazardous material in environment.
- Avoid unpublished data, methods and results without permission.
- Contribute proper acknowledgement or honour for all authors in research contribution.
- Avoid to carry out unnecessary or poorly designed experimental work.
- The principal and research committee holds final right to take action against any misconduct in research.